Last night a mob of Milltree's friends intended to take Dieffenbacher from the jail and hang him, but met so determined resistance from a guard of citizens that they were obliged to give up the attempt. Maddened at the failure they set fire to the town and burned one of the best blocks. Great excitement and fear of further trouble.

Reports being favorable, he decided to turn round and find the schooner which struck the steamer and render assistance if necessary. When the steamer would no longer steer he went to his room and secured two life preservers, keeping one himself.

The Czar's toast was to "The Valiant Germans." The festivities of the day terminated by a monster torchlight procession in the evening, and playing of the Prussian tattoo by 1,124 musicians. Great Flood—More Apache Outrages

Los Angeles, Sept 8.—The Arizona Miner of the 31st ult. publishes a delayed letter from Camp McDowell, in which it is stated that that region had been visited by the greatest flood ever witnessed. 3 61 inches of water, by the hospital guage, fell in less than two hours. Nearly seven inches fell in less than twelve hours. The damage is immense. The Government ditches are nearly all washed away. Over $5,000 worth of hay has been lost. Camp on farm was also at one time surrounded by water, and at the post the men were in doubt whether they would get away with their lives.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

Interesting from Salem.

Salem, September 8.—Nearly all the members of both Houses have arrived. Many other persons from different parts of the State are present. Canvassing on the Senator question is active. The only candidates talked of are Mitchell and Corbett. Developments are not sufficient to indicate just how the canvass stands. The prevailing opinion is that a caucus will be held to decide the question.

A consultation of the Republican members of the House has been held, and an agreement reached by which that body will probably organize by electing Rufus Mallory, of Marion, as Speaker, S A Clarke, of Marion, Chief Clerk, Sam Simpson, of Benton, Assistant Clerk, Roach, of Linn, Enrolling Clerk, Dr. Dodge, of Multnomah, Engrossing Clerk, E Hadaway, of Yamhill, Sergeant-at-Arms. This body will probably organize promptly to-morrow morning.

The Senate being a tie, its speedy organization is uncertain. The two parties in that body will probably be forced to a consultation to bring about an organization—dividing the offices between them.

L B Drew, formerly of Sacramento, who had his arm pinched by a friend by way of a joke about 18 months since, from the effects of which a cancer was developed, died at San Francisco on the 7th inst. His arm was amputated in September, 1871, and he had submitted to two subsequent operations without relief. Death resulted from the effects of this foolish practical joke. He was a native of Plymouth, New Hampshire, and leaves a widow and five children.

The Texas State Journal says: "Just a week ago a large body of well armed savages invaded Blanco county near Bellville, about three hours' ride from Austin. A fight ensued, in which several whites and Indians were put hors de combat. If this thing goes on, the Comanches will settle the question of the removal of the capital by carrying it off to the Llano Estacado."

In Portland, Me., a recent judicial decision makes telegraph companies responsible for failure to transmit messages correctly and deliver them promptly. The decision allows no weight whatever to the fact that the messages are written on blanks with printed denials of their responsibility. The law imposes on them the obligation to do what they receive pay for doing.

The Pioche-Robinson case still continues to occupy the attention of the Fifteenth District Court in San Francisco. The proceedings on the 7th were confined to the reading of affidavits showing that Robinson is an unwilling witness, and that he has a large amount of the assets of the estate in his possession, of which he refuses to give an account.

Miss Lampheer, of Casco, Michigan, had so much fun pointing a gun at her mother to hear the old lady scream. She repeated this on many occasions, and was consumed with laughter at the foolish old thing's fright. Her mirth was rudely interrupted last Sunday by the report of the gun and a sudden cessation of the screams. What is home without a mother?

Candy eaters will not find the following agreeable reading. Interesting but unpleasant revelations have been lately made concerning the adulteration of candy in New York. Terra alba, verdigris, red lead, amboline and fusel oil are among the ingredients employed. Some of them act as violent poisons in the system.

A marauding party of Indians near Spanish Fort Bend, Texas, were driven out with the loss of one killed and one brave captured. Soap and water converted the prisoner into a white man, and his captors gave him a short shift.

MONDAY MORNING SEPT [illegible] 18[illegible]

Senatorial Election

The Eugene [illegible] always judicious in its utterance has a [illegible] article on the election of a Senator. Th[illegible] the first important [illegible] Legislature [illegible] other business will be [illegible] until this is disposed of. [illegible] party usage and a regard for the maintenance of party principles are considerations [illegible] nomination of a Senator. It says rightly that all can not have their first choice. "Our free government—we quote at large from this article—is founded on the theory that the majority must decide what is best for all, and that all human organizations where there is freedom, whether religious, political or social, rest upon the same idea that the minority must yield to the majority. Principles can not be maintained without parties to carry them out, and parties like governments can not exist without organization. Therefore the only safe way and in fact the only way to keep up a party organization is for the majority of its members or representatives to designate or nominate, through the usual method of a convention or caucus, the men who are to carry out its principles, and then they are entitled to and must receive the cordial support of the minority and of every member of the party. While this method may be imperfect, as all human agencies are, it is the fairest way, and the only possible means of carrying out the will of the people. Any other course would bring speedy and certain disorganization, and would turn victory into defeat, by allowing the party which had been defeated at the polls to combine with the minority of the successful party, and thus thwart the will of the people who voted for them, and break up the party that placed them in power. When the Republican members of the Legislature meet in caucus and after weighing the merits of the various candidates, decide who shall be the candidate of the party for U S Senator, we hold that every member elected on the Republican ticket will be bound by that decision, and to disregard it would be the basest treachery to his party and constituents. We do not believe there is a single Republican who will for a moment think of pursuing such a course which would [illegible] far more to the advantage of the Democrats than anything that any of their own members could do. Without expressing a preference for any particular candidate, we cannot do less, as a Republican, than to urge Republicans to stand by the nominee of a caucus, whoever he may be, and elect him by the united vote of the party. Every Republican in the Legislature owes his position there to the nomination of a political caucus, and to the fact that his political associates recognized that such nomination was binding on each member of the party and voted for him because he was the nominee of the party."

We second every sentiment of the Journal's article. No Republican who rightly considers the subject can do less. The caucus is recognized everywhere and by all parties as the [illegible] honorable and legitimate way of settling controversies as to candidates. Without the use of the caucus in some form, no party could exist. There are occasions when it must be employed as the only method for the solution of differences of opinion within parties, and parties can be sustained only by adherence to it.

A New Discovery

The New York World has settled the question as to the utility of expeditions to the North Pole. It assures us that if the explorers should ever be so fortunate as to get to that locality, they could not by any possibility return. They would stick there as hopelessly as so many flies embedded in molasses. It is a pity that the knowledge furnished by the World had not been known to the heroic explorers who have periled so much to get to a place where they would have been the re[illegible] victims of too much gravitation. The World says:

Every boy, when first told how rapidly the world spins round, has probably asked what keeps the inhabitants from flying off at a tangent, and has been informed in reply that the attraction of gravitation (which he, of course, recollects was suggested to Sir Isaac Newton by the fall of an apple) suffices to more than counterbalance the centrifugal force occasioned by the rotatory motion of our planet. But obviously this centrifugal impetus diminishes as we approach the center of rotation, and the gravity which gives a man firm foothold at the equator, where he is whirled round at the end of a radius of 4,000 miles long, would at the quiescent pole make him so heavy that no effort of human muscle could raise his heel from the ground: for be it remembered that if he stood erect upon earth's summit the only motion impressed upon him would be that of turning slowly round once in twenty four hours.

O'Conor's Letter

Charles O'Conor's letter to the Louisville Convention was dated 31st August. Following is a synopsis:

The letter strongly deprecates governmental interference in concerns of Society which might better be left to individual action. He considers Greeley the recognized champion of this obnoxious practice. No body of organized opposition to it has ever existed in this country except the Democratic party. Not Greeley has been gazetted as its standard bearer. Aside from party sentiment my views of public interest, and existing public necessities compel him to repudiate the Baltimore nomination, if compelled to decide between Grant and Greeley. The success of Grant might involve no important consequences but that of Greeley would consecrate the practices referred to which are incompatible with Republican institutions.

In the Albany Democrat there is a bid for a coalition between the Democrats in the Legislature and a few Republicans, for the purpose of electing a Senator. Of course the Democrat is exceedingly anxious that the Republican party of the State shall be defrauded of its choice in the election of a Senator, and it hopes a sufficient number of members elected as Republicans can be found to assist the Democrats in accomplishing the job. This is disinterestedness, of course. But we have not heard a single Republican member named who can be counted on for such an adulterous political connection. It would be highly edifying to the Democracy to be able to break up the Republican party in this way. It would give the State to Greeley, and make the election of Democratic Senators and Congressmen delightfully easy hereafter.

A fellow named Sullivan, whose amount of brains is in reverse ratio to his brass, is making commendable efforts through his Liberal Republican, a mongrel sheet printed somewhere in Polk county, to get a notice from the OREGONIAN. He has now succeeded, but we can't promise him anything farther, and leave him henceforth to digest the venom of his spleen as best he may.

Election in Maine to-day. Listen for the Pine Tree State to roll back the echoes of Oregon, North Carolina and Vermont.

OREGON

It cost Marion County $[illegible] to be assessed this year.

Corvallis has a school marm now teaching who is over sixty years old.

A vein of genuine stone coal four feet thick has been discovered north of Jacksonville.

James Dinwiddie of Lane county threshed [illegible] bushels of wheat from a field of [illegible]00 acres.

John W[illegible] of Ja[illegible] county, is alleged [illegible] and is in jail in default of [illegible] bail.

The Benton county [illegible] says Col [illegible] will open the campaign in [illegible] Oregon on the 10th of this month.

The net total amount of taxable property in Lane county, as returned by the Assessor for the year 1872, is $2,63[illegible],518.

The woods in the Calipooia mountains were on fire last week and the upper end of the Wallamet valley densely filled with smoke.

The Coos Bay Steam Navigation Company have commenced the construction of their new steamer. It is being built at Empire City.

The railroad track in Lane county was valued by the Assessor at $6,000 per mile, but the County Court reduced it to $5,000.

Russell's trail from Coos City to Empire, has been completed. This quite materially shortens the distance between Roseburg and Empire.

The last number of the Albany Register contains a wood cut representing Castle Rock in the Distance. It is scarcely as natural as life.

The Guard says the citizens of Corvallis wanted to work their "double deck" 40 horse power fire engine and had to send to Linn county for help.

The County Court of Lane county has levied a tax of 13 mills on the dollar of the taxable property in Lane county, for the current fiscal year.

Mr B C Wallace who had his leg mashed in a threshing machine and afterward amputated, died at his home in Lane county on the 3d inst, of his injuries.

George Mercer of Corvallis, who has just finished his contract of surveying the Klamath Indian Agency, reports that severe frosts have injured the crops in that region.

John Moores was arrested in Jackson last week on a charge of assault, being armed with a dangerous weapon, but he escaped, and is now "where the woodbine twineth."

The Jacksonville Times says hardly a day passes without one or more emigrant wagons passing through town, bound for the Willamette, Rogue river or Umpqua valleys, and it appears as though Oregon is filling up with astonishing rapidity.

Mrs Files and Miss Watson were drowned in Kitchen Slough, Coos county, by the upsetting of a boat on the 28th ult. The boat was in charge of a boy about 15 years old, who succeeded in saving the lives of three or four others who were in at the time.

A dealer in grain at Corvallis says that the barley thus far received by him has not ripened evenly and would not keep if stored in bulk, many grains appearing in it which would heat and mold. The backward spring was probably the cause of this.

There are three Greeley Republicans in Yamhill. One of them held a Post office until recently and thought we had "the best government ever the sun shone on," but he was removed and now thinks" the whole concern is a mass of iniquity and corruption.

Butterfield & Co. of California passed through Jacksonville last week with a large band of Angora goats, bound for the State Fair. U S Hayden, Esq, invested in five head of the animals, which is quite an accession to the blooded stock of Jackson county.

There is a man in Eugene City who says luck has been against him since childhood, and that it would have been money in his pocket if he had never been born. A great many of his friends say that had he died in early youth they too would have saved something.

J A Hurlbert, railroad surveyor, is now engaged in surveying the Siskiyou range, endeavoring to find the most passable route for the railroad through Rogue river valley. That he may find the same, and that the railroad may certainly pass through that valley, is the sincere wish of Jackson county.

The State Journal says: "One of the five "Liberals" who belong to the Greeley Club at Eugene, says he joined the Democrats because the Republicans did not "recognize his claims" to office. He has no fault to find with the party or its principles, but wants his 'claims recognized.' That is what is the matter with all of them, from Horace down. Every one has a 'claim,' and he always will have."

The Plaindealer has the following terrible relation: "Sunday, August 11th, as Mr and Mrs Stephens, who reside on Kentucky Slough, Coos county, were visiting their neighbors their house caught fire and burned up. Three children were in the house and were consumed by the fire. Mr Stephens saw the smoke of the burning house, swam the slough and rushed into the house to save his children, but too late. He was badly burned about the face and hands. A few of the charred bones of the children were found in the debris."

A man by the name of Wm Conwell, a native of England, died in Wasco county some time ago who when alive lived so meanly that he hardly kept his body and soul together. It is supposed by some, that he starved himself to death or the next thing to it, at least he was so reduced from want of proper food that when disease attacked him he was taken off almost immediately. Since his death his estate has been settled up and there is a balance of $4,117 22 in coin remaining in the hands of the administrator that will evidently go to the State, as he died without leaving any known heirs.

The Deaf Mute School at Salem, under charge of Prof Smith, has reopened under the most favorable auspices, and with promise of increased success. There are eighteen pupils in attendance, eight of whom have not attended heretofore. They propose to give an exhibition in about two weeks, in order to show the members of the Legislature what they can do, and to arouse interest in their own behalf. It is confidently expected there will be thirty or forty scholars in attendance before the year is out, as quite a number have signified their intention to attend at the close of the State Fair.

John Minto in a letter to the Mountaineer states that Jacob Fraker of Umatilla county, started in the business of sheep raising five years ago with 1,500 head of common sheep, worth, say $3,750 and $250 spent for improved bucks, in all $4,000. He has sold in sheep and wool from the flock to the amount of $18,000 and has now 3,750 head of sheep worth $3 per head, or $11,250. The past year's operation may be thus stated: From a stock of 3,150 he has sold in wool and sheep to the amount of $8,968 75 and has 600 head of his increase on hand worth $3 per head, making $10,[illegible]68 75, from which deduct $2,000 for care and attention which leaves $8,267 25 as net gain.

Drs Vite and Bailey report Mr Brugger of Hillsboro, who lost his arm in his flouring mill, as doing better than they expected. It seems that Mr Brugger was engaged in repairing his smut mill while the machinery was in motion, having on at the time a vest which was caught by a shaft, doubling him back and taking his right arm off from the shoulder. Being thus thrown from his balance his left leg was caught by other machinery and broken in two places below the knee, one of the bones sticking out through the skin. The arm was not lost as at first reported, but was found lying on the floor where the accident occurred. It is thought that the chances are about even for his life.

A gentleman living in Washington county, not over five miles southeast of Hillsboro, was aroused a Sabbath or two ago by hearing his hogs in the woods pasture kicking up a great rumpus. He shouldered his gun, ran to the spot, and found a bear helping himself to one of his hogs. The bear started for tall timber, closely followed by the gentleman and his dogs, who finally succeeded in killing the bear. Now this gentleman's wife was a regular blue-stockinged Christian and was so horrified at this piece of vandalism that she declared "she would not remain thus unevenly yoked to the ungodly" and hied her away to her father's house and further declares that she will pray Judge Upton at the fall term, to unyoke her.

At Albany on last Saturday evening, as the construction train with the engine and caboose was backing slowly over the side track running along the river [illegible] a young man [illegible] Harrison Danes was run over and instantly killed. The train was running very slowly and the boy was constantly [illegible] Every precaution to prevent accident was taken. The man was wheeling a wheelbarrow and attempted to cross the track in front of the moving train when it is supposed the bumper of the caboose struck him, breaking his spine and doubling him up, the car rolling him over and over underneath until the caboose and locomotive both passed over him. He was a deaf mute and a bright intelligent boy. His death and the circumstances attending it has cast a gloom over the entire community as he was universally respected and esteemed. Of course the excitement attending the affair has called forth a variety of opinions as to whether the accident could or could not have been prevented, but there is no question but that it was purely accidental, and could not possibly have been prevented.

THE TERRITORIES

Forty Chinamen are prospecting for gold on the Wynatche creek in the Yakima country.

Gov Ferry of Washington Territory has issued his call for a general election on November 5th.

The Gentile element is said to be increasing much more rapidly than the Mormon at Salt Lake.

The Olympia Courier says that the townsite controversy at Steilacoom has at last received its final quietus.

A white man and a colored girl both citizens of Olympia went over to British Columbia a few days ago and were married.

There are no saloons in Kittitas valley and only two in Yakima county, and one of them at Priest's Rapids among the Indians.

The Democrats of Clarke county W T will hold a convention on the 21st inst, to nominate candidates for county officers.

In the collision case between the steamers Maude and North Pacific, on Puget Sound, the decision rendered was against the latter boat.

At last accounts wheat was arriving at Walla Walla very rapidly. The Union says one mill is receiving at the rate of seven hundred bushels daily.

The residents in Kittitas valley, Washington Territory, complain about mail matters and say it takes a letter from Walla Walla fifteen days to reach them.

Shipley, of Washington Territory, the pirate, was reported at Plumper's Pass last week. Where he isn't reported would be a hard place to find on the lower Sound.

Mr Matthew Horner and several other gentlemen left the Dalles a few days ago on a prospecting trip for gold, to the country near Mount Adams, in Washington Territory.

Post offices have been established at Taneum and Pleasant Grove in Yakima county. It is only four years since the first settler came to the county, and now there are 150 voters.

Track at the east end of the Northern Pacific Railroad is being laid at the rate of two miles per day. The directors have ordered the road to be completed to Brainard, Minn, immediately.

The Apaches still continue to murder and steal cattle. The local papers report that the country is overrun with bands of Indians, who are committing all manner of depredations on the whites.

Gen Milroy the new Indian Superintendent of Washington Territory seems to take hold of matters as if he meant business. He is making official visits to all the Reservations in his jurisdiction.

The Bitter Root Valley, one of the finest in Montana Territory, has recently, by order of the President and an Act of Congress, been thrown open to settlement, General Garfield, member of Congress from Ohio, is now in the Territory, with orders to remove the Flathead Indians from the Bitter Root Valley to their Reservation on the Jocko river. Many of these Indians have signified their determination not to be removed, but remain in open defiance to Uncle Sam's orders. The citizens justly feel alarmed at the state of affairs, and fear a general Indian outbreak. There are now hundreds of Indians in the valley belonging to the Pend d'Oreille, Nez Perces, Kootanais, Spokane and Flathead tribes, and all related to and in sympathy with the latter tribe.

The Mountaineer says: Mr J F Moody returned on Monday, having completed his surveying contract. He had two parties in the field and so did a large amount of work in a short space of time. He ran the fifth standard parallel north of the base line, which is the boundary line of Whitman county—a new county created by the last Legislature of Washington Territory by being stricken off from Stevens county. Also extended fourth standard east to Idaho line. He then ran some township and section lines on north side of the fourth standard. Whitman county is on the head of Palouse creek and in the vicinity of Colfax—a new town—located at the junction of North and South Palouse creeks. This point is designed as the county seat of Whitman county. The country is well watered and covered with a dense growth of bunch grass. It is rapidly settling up, and is full of people in search of stock ranches and farms.

RAILROAD MATTERS.—Our Washington county correspondent under date of September 8th, says: "At 9 o'clock this morning a party took the cars from Hillsboro to the front and arrived at Cornelius ten minutes after nine. Here the passenger train stopped, and through the kindness of Mr. [illegible], we were passed to the front. The track is now laid to Gastonville, a distance of eight miles from Cornelius. The roadbed is a fine specimen of workmanship, the train passing over this piece of road as smoothly as on some of the older roads An immense quantity of material is now lying at Cornelius for the construction of the road Gastonville presents one of the finest views of any station south of Reedsville A side track has been laid, and arrangements have been made by Mr Gaston for the erection of a large and commodious warehouse the coming week, which will accommodate the farming interests of that section. Wapato Lake presents one of the finest stretches of arable lands in Washington county, in one body that can be seen. Many courtesies were shown us the Conductor. It is the object of the company to push the road [illegible] as rapidly as possible. We returned to Cornelius at one o'clock, and were served with a sumptuous dinner at friend Turpin's"

STRANGE AILMENT.—Saturday night a man whose name is unknown, and whose face is strange to all, was arrested on Washington street, supposed to be in a helpless state of intoxication, as he was lying prone in the gutter. He was removed to the city jail, where he passed a restless, feverish night During the night he disturbed the officer frequently with groans, as if suffering great physical pain. Yesterday he was no better, and a physician was summoned. The man was examined, but the doctor could not ascertain what the character of his ailment was. His pulse beat regularly, and there seemed to be no suspension of the functions of the body. All last night he grew no better. He will probably be removed to the Hospital to day, if his condition does not improve. Strange to say, the man from the time of his arrest up to the present, has never spoken a word, nor tasted food or drink.

QUIET.—Yesterday was a remarkably quiet day, considering the fact that it was Sunday No [illegible] occurred so far as we were able to ascertain, although people were riding on land and sailing on water A great many were drinking, but very few were drunk, and what few did get [illegible] either went quietly home or were escorted to the city jail. ORO FINO THEATRE—OPENING EVENING.—This place of amusement was densely crowded Saturday evening with an intelligent and fashionable audience on the occasion of the opening of the new theatrical season As before announced, Shakspeare's great tragedy of "Macbeth" was produced. Theatre goers are not often favored with such a rendition of this play as was witnessed Saturday evening. Besides the largest and most talented company of lady and gentlemen performers who have ever appeared on any one occasion before a Portland audience, additional strength, effect and completeness were furnished in generalities and details, in the way of scenery, properties, stage accessories, mechanical effects, etc, so necessary in the appointments of a well regulated theatre An unusual degree of interest attached to the occasion on account of the judicious distribution of the characters of the play The piece was admirably cast, and was well calculated to bring out to the fullest extent possible, the whole strength of the troupe The title roles were assumed by Mr Waldron and Mrs C F Stewart Mr. Waldron's rendition of that wonderfully drawn character of Macbeth, so irresolute, so relenting and cruel—vacillating constantly betwixt the prompting of an overweening ambition and a cravenly fear was the most perfect and artistic piece of acting with which the public has perhaps ever been favored in this city His impersonation of the tyrant was in every respect thorough and scholarly, and stamped him as an actor of no ordinary genius He was equally happy in the manner in which all the lights and shadows of Macbeth's subtle character were brought prominently or subordinately into play, both as the ambitious aspirant for the crown, and as the moody, desponding, and conscience stricken assassin Mrs. Stewart's Lady Macbeth was characteristic throughout for its correct conception of the great author's meaning Her gestures were easy and graceful, her bearing dignified and queenly, the modulation faultless and coupled with an elocution which displayed long and persistent training She studiously avoided the style of "ranting" so commonly met with in the rendition of that difficult character, carefully guarding extremes, and exercising an admirable control over the various shades of emphasis so as to concentrate the intended power on each sentence where it properly belonged With the exception of Julia Dean Hayne, who visited this city some years ago. Lady Macbeth has never been so artistically rendered before in Portland, as was witnessed at Oro Fino Theatre last Saturday evening. Of the remainder of the cast, we can only speak in unqualified praise The first "Witch" scene was represented by Messrs. Crosbie and Vinson, and Mrs. Waldron The acting was very fine and the general makeup strange and wierd like to a fault The second and third "Witch" scene—generally omitted in previous renditions of the play here—was unsurpassed in the grotesqueness of the acts and the number of the actors, including some twelve or thirteen characters The part of "Banquo" was sustained by Mr Cox in an able manner "Macduff" was sustained by Robert Lulford in that well known actor's best style Samuel Piercy assumed the character of "Malcolm" in first class style This is a young actor of considerable promise He possesses a round full and musical voice, quite pleasant to hear, but manifests a little stiffness, and acts mechanically, as most persons generally do who have not worn off the "stage fright" The remainder of the cast was admirably sustained All who wish to see "Macbeth" as it has never been rendered in Portland before, should avail of the opportunity and visit the theater this evening

OREGON PRESBYTERY.

The Oregon Presbytery assembled last Saturday pursuant to adjournment, at [illegible] o'clock Half an hour or more was consumed in devotional exercises The Moderator then called the meeting to order, and constituted the Presbytery in due form

The Committee on Itineracy asked for an extension of time to report which was granted

Rev A R Medbury, of the First Baptist Church was introduced by Dr Lindsley and invited to sit as a corresponding member

The Chairman of the Executive Committee reported at considerable length concerning the Lapwai Mission, during which the report of Dr Geary on Spaulding vs Monteith was taken up, and the following minute adopted

Inasmuch as this case is now in the hands of the Board of Foreign Missions it is not expedient for this body to take any action upon it at present further than to communicate to the Board the views of the whole case as entertained by the Presbytery thereafter

On motion it was resolved that Messrs Nesbitt Whitworth and Babbitt be appointed a Committee to prepare a communication and report at this meeting after Presbytery

On the question of the next place of meeting, it was resolved that the next Presbytery meet at Albany on the first Thursday of November next

In reference to attending Synod, the following resolution was adopted

Resolved, That inasmuch as time, expense and distance prevent a full attendance of the members of this Presbytery at Synod, commissioners be appointed, consisting of one minister, and one ruling elder to represent this Presbytery and that their expenses be paid by assessment it being understood that this appointment is not intended to interfere with voluntary attendance on the Synod

The Committee on Devotional Exercises reported as follows, the report being adopted and committee discharged Rev Geo W Whitworth, First Baptist Sunday morning Rev W R Nesbitt, Presbyterian Church Sunday morning Rev M Crowl, Congregational Church, Sunday morning Rev Mr Thompson at the same church in the evening Rev Mr Rae, at the Presbyterian Church, Sunday evening

The Presbytery convened Saturday afternoon in due form.

The Committee on Presbytery Finance presented the following report

Your Committee on Presbytery Finances beg leave to report That after a careful examination of the records of the Presbytery, they are unable to find anything definite which will enable them to ascertain what churches are delinquent on the pro rata assessments which have been made

The only action of recent date taken by the Presbytery, was at the meeting held in Portland in June, 1871 and was as follows

Resolved, That the rule of the General Assembly on Commissioners and Mileage Funds be adopted by the Presbytery, and that the apportionment be made on the cases proposed, and that the stated Clerk give due annual notice to the churches, stating when and to whom it shall be paid

There is nothing showing what the proposed basis was, and your Committee not having at hand a copy of the Assembly's minutes referred to, are unable to arrive at any satisfactory conclusion

They find that the following churches did at the last session pay their proportionate part toward the Commissioners' Fund. Portland, Albany, Pleasant Grove, Brownsville, Olympia, and Seattle

There was at the last session, a collection taken for the contingent fund of Presbytery amounting to $5 50, but nothing to indicate from what sources received.

We would therefore recommend that the State Clerk be requested to make a report at the adjourned meeting at Albany of the different Funds under control of Presbytery, and assessable by it, also what delinquencies if any, for the past year exist Respectfully submitted,

G W WHITWORTH,
E B BABBITT,
Committee

The report was adopted and committee, discharged

The Committee on Theological Education presented the following report which was adopted—a copy ordered to be transmitted to the Directors of our Theological Seminary in California

Resolved, First, That we heartily second the efforts of the Synod of the Pacific in the establishment and maintainance of our Theological Seminary in San Francisco

Second, That we recommend it to the churches under our charge for their support and prayers

Third, That we express our entire confidence in its present and future success

D K NESBITT,
JOHN RAE,
E B BABBITT,
Committee.

The Committee on Church Property on Chambers' Prairie asked for and obtained an extension of time in which to report

The Presbytery then resolved itself into an interlocutory conference upon the state of religion within our bounds, and after spending some two hours or more in the discussion of this interesting topic, was called to order, when the papers of Mr George Ross were referred to the Executive Committee

The following resolution was passed

Inasmuch as delay in prosecuting the work of the present session was caused by the want of a business docket, be it therefore

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed to prepare such a docket, and present it at the first meeting of this Presbytery, at each of its regular sessions

The Executive Committee reported that, upon an examination of the credentials of Mr. George Ross, the same had been found regular in every particular The Committee recommended that the credentials be received, and that Mr Ross be taken under charge of the Presbytery as a licentiate, which was adopted

Leave of absence was granted Messrs Cheadle and Templeton for the remainder of the session.

The Committee on Communication to Board of Foreign Missions in reference to the Lapwai Agency and Mission, presented a lengthy report, which was received and reserved for future consideration

The committee to whom was assigned the duty of preparing a paper to be laid before the Board of Home Missions, on the subject of an Itinerant Missionary, presented a report which was also received and reserved for future consideration.

The Presbytery then adjourned

Avoid the Perils of the Season

Autumn, although the most radiant portion of the American year, has its drawbacks. The heavy evening dews and morning vapors, and the great disparity in temperature between the night and day give rise to many painful disturbances of the bowels such as colic cholera morbus, diarrhaea and dysentery The digestive organs are also unfavorably affected by the change of season and dyspeptics generally suffer most severely during the fall. Derangements of the liver are likewise common, and miasmatic fevers prevail in newly-settled districts and low lying and marshy localities These unpleasant contingencies of the season are not, however, unavoidable. By strengthening, toning and regulating the system with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, even the most delicate may escape them At the expiration of summer all the bodily powers are in a somewhat exhausted state. They require the wholesome stimulation which this genial vegetable invigorant supplies Under its renovating influence the nervous energy which the wilting heat of July and August had kept in abeyance or partially extinguished crops out afresh the flaccid muscles recover their elasticity the appetite takes a sharper edge the processes of digestion and assimilation become more rapid and perfect, the spirits rise and the whole organization acquires its maximum of activity and resilient power. Even persons of comparatively feeble constitutions who thus fortified against the perils of the season, will have little cause to fear a visitation from any of the disorders to which we have referred As a protection against miasmatic fevers and all epidemics engendered by malaria, Hostetter's Bitters may be justly pronounced not only unrivaled but unapproached Look well to the label and trade mark, as there are many counterfeits and imitations in the market

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.--1860--X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Youth and Age

I often think each tottering form
That limps along in life's decline
[illegible] a heart as young and warm
As full of idle thoughts as mine
And each has had his dream of joy
His own unequalled pure romance
Commencing when the blushing boy
First thrilled at lovely woman's glance

And each could tell his tale of youth
Would think its scenes of love evince
More passion more unearthly truth
Than any tale before or since
Yes they could tell of tender lays
At midnight penned in classic shades
Of days more bright than modern days
And maids more fair than modern maids

Of whispers in a willing ear
Of kisses on a blushing cheek
Each kiss each whisper far too dear
For modern lips to give or speak
Of passions too untimely crossed
Of passions slighted or betrayed
Of kindred spirits early lost
And buds that blossomed but to fade

Of beaming eyes and tresses gay
Elastic form and noble brow
And forms that early passed away
And left them what we see them now
And is it thus—is human love
So very light and frail a thing
And must the youthful visions move
For ever on time's restless wing

Must all the eyes that still are bright
And all the lips that talk of bliss
And all the forms so fair to sight
Hereafter only come to this
Then what are earth's best visions worth
If we must leave them in a day
If all we value most on earth
So soon must from us fade away

Manners of the Day

A writer in the Chicago Times deplores the lack of courtesy in these days and illustrates as follows:—You step into a justice's office. A young man sits near enough to a desk to make a foot-rack of it reading a paper. You are after the justice and you ask in a tone greatly modulated by experience of former rebuffs if he is in. You stand in waiting until the young man has finished his paragraph when he kindly gives you the benefit of a casual inspection and resumes his paper, incidentally remarking that he thinks not.

Put upon, but not discouraged, you resume—

"When is he likely to be in?"

Feebly, "Can't say," devouring another paragraph about a boy being chawed up by a dog in Iowa. In doubt whether you may safely ask another question you still muster up courage enough to enquire

"Where would I be likely to find him?"

Without looking up

"In Milwaukie."

Irritated with this cool trifling with your time and patience, you demand,

"Could you not have said as much at first?"

Imperturbably

"If I'd been asked I could, old boy."

And you, who had thought yourself able to stand before great kings retired from the presence of this bold brassy boy, discomfited.

A gentleman of my acquaintance of the very finest sensibilities, and one to whom a word is severer than a blow, went with a lady friend to a great depot in this city to help her off on a journey. He went first to have her baggage checked. Pointing out her trunk to the man in charge, the only reply made was the word—

"Ticket!"

Not comprehending exactly what was meant, he stood a moment, as one who is in doubt, expecting an explanation. It came—

"Go and get your ticket if you want your baggage checked!" roared the man, in the coarse, hard tone of a ruffian.

My friend got the ticket and returned. The trunk was put on the scales and proved to be over weight.

"Dollar!" ejaculated the man.

My friend, you know, innocently supposed that baggage went with the passenger without extra charge, and therefore thought he was being defrauded. So he said—

"I think I'll not pay the dollar. I'll take the trunk back and send it by express."

"No you won't," said the baggageman, "you'll pay the dollar."

And he did.

A young man saw a card in a window—"Four neckties for a quarter." That being about the amount he felt able to squander on neck [illegible] he stepped in. A pimped and bedeviled knight of the ribbon stood behind the counter, and seemed utterly oblivious of the young man's approach until addressed.

"I would like some of those neckties," said the young man.

"How many?" asked the clerk.

"Four."

"We can't make anything selling these neckties four at a time," said the young man in a petulant way. "We frequently lose a large sale while we are attending to these neckties."

"I wouldn't keep 'em," said the young [illegible] "and if I kept 'em, I wouldn't advertise them in the window 'four for a quarter.'"

"Th[illegible] you wouldn't," said the milk eyed, pert spoken clerk as with one gyration of his attenuated shadow grown form he whisked the neckties back into the show window and then went placidly back to his ogling.

The good man thinks that was the promptest dry goods prince he has ever met, even in Chicago.

Did you ever muster up courage to speak to one of our policemen? One of those fellows who stand around in their first good clothes to boss the newsboys? If you have, you need no advice. If not you will find the following simple directions of great value. Never [illegible] to a policeman when your wife is by. To be snubbed in her presence is subversive of home discipline.

Never attempt an interview in presence of your sweetheart. Her hero, punctured, suffers a collapse.

Never approach a peeler with your hat on. He will arrest you for contempt.

Never approach one with your hat off. Meekness and civility are his meat and drink.

If you seek directions from one seek it from two. As they will not agree ask a third. To the sum of their differences add what you before knew, and you will be in a condition to go and look in a directory.

To make an interview perfectly safe and eminently satisfactory get yourself up in a loud and dashing style. Buff trowsers—variegated waistcoat—"Dolly Varden" necktie. Take on a swagger, a look of assurance that—but, then, unless you have blood in your eye you will not succeed.

A JAPANESE GROOM.—At 5 o'clock in the morning we set off with M. Lindau on an excursion which promises to be charming, and indeed, is so. We are going to try some horses which we think of taking for a month. It is a ride of forty-eight miles, and if they [illegible] such fatigue the bargain will be concluded. They are cobs, black as ebony with a bright and lively eye and a touch of the Arab about them. To horse, to horse! We must be off. We began by an hour's fast trot along the valley which extends south of Yokohama, and followed a narrow path in the middle of the rice fields every moment jumping over little bridges a foot wide, made of three bamboos placed side by side. All this time I never got tired of watching my betto (Japanese groom) who ran before me with the agility of a gazelle, warning my horse, his friend by a sharp little cry at every difficult step. It seems that in Japan no horseman ever thinks of riding without his faithful and indefatigable runner with his graceful and nervous limbs who rivals his horse. Armado (that is the name of my new servant) has indeed, throughout this long day, kept up with our rapid pace the whole time. If we dismounted at a teahouse there he was taking care of my horse washing his nostrils with fresh water, and providing him with a slight repast of beans. I wish I could show you how he barely touches the ground with his light tread! When he started his dress was magnificent. He wore a dark blue robe with enormously large sleeves and tight trousers which defined the most exquisite legs. As he ran through the rice fields, his sleeves streaming in the wind he looked like a great blue butterfly racing after the tall flowers. Soon gradually throwing off all his coverings he appeared only clothed in a pair of socks and his scarlet tattoo marks, which represented a struggle between a woman some large birds and a serpent. English ladies would have preferred the tatooing of M. Lindau's betto—perfectly naked, he was yet clothed. His tattoo marks represented a blue jacket with white buttons, red seams scarlet designs in the middle of the back, and trousers very tight (it is true since it was his skin) of black and white checks.—[A Voyage Round the World, by the Marquis de Beauvoir.

THE COMPANY IS NOW PREPARED TO EXTEND the pre-emption privilege of purchasing Railroad Lands in advance of the same being placed in market to all parties desirous of securing them on the following terms:

The applicant filing in this office a claim in the form prescribed to wit:

Pre-emption [illegible] date No ——

To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company.

SIR: You are hereby notified that I have settled upon and improved (description of land) in the county of —— State of Oregon containing —— acres and that I claim a pre-emption right to purchase said lands at the Company's valuation in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company adopted on the twenty-sixth day of May A D 1871 in the terms of which I hereby fully assent.

Resolved, That the parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company before the same are opened to market shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchase on the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement, and shall be subject to the same conditions of payment as all other lands belonging to the Company when brought to market; provided such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company written application giving notice of such settlement and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent through the Postoffice or otherwise as may be convenient, to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.

When the price of the above described land is fixed notice thereof will be sent to the party to whom this Certificate is issued and if the land is not purchased by the said party or the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr Gibbon's Dispensary

623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON [illegible] takes pleasure in announcing that he [illegible] the principal Hospitals of Europe [illegible] at his Dispensary 623 Kearney street corner of Commercial, San Francisco where [illegible] patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking new remedies and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents guard and friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury. They adjourn drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing that [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the faces, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them—nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co. a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy too work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1 957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

And I have [illegible] an invariable rule to advertise in dull times as well [illegible] busiest; long experience having taught me that [illegible] thus spent is well laid out, as by continually keeping business before the public it has secured many [illegible] I otherwise would have lost."
